

Terms & Conditions

- 1. Booking and Payment - All studio sessions must be booked in advance through our website or by contacting us directly. Payment in full is required at time of booking.
- 2. Cancellation and Rescheduling Policy - Cancellations made seven (7) days before the reservation will receive a full refund.
  - a. Cancellations made within six (6) days of the reservation are non-refundable.
  - b. Rescheduling requests must be made at least 72 hours in advance and are subject to availability.
- 3. Refund Policy - Refunds will only be issued for cancellations made within the permitted timeframe. No refunds will be provided for no-shows or last-minute cancellations. If technical issues occur due to our equipment, a partial or full refund may be issued at the Studio's discretion.
- 4. Studio Usage Rules - Clients must respect studio equipment and premises. No smoking, alcohol, or illegal substances are allowed in the studio. Any damages to studio equipment caused by the Client will be the Client's financial responsibility.
- 5. Intellectual Property Rights - Texas Collective Studios reserves the right to use any of the footage from the session for marketing purposes only. Clients retain full rights to their recorded content with the only exception being that listed above. In the event that the Studio would like to use any of the recordings outside of normal marketing purposes, the studio will request written permission from the Client to do so.
- 6. Liability Waiver - The Studio is not responsible for any lost, stolen, or damaged personal items. Clients use the studio at their own risk and must adhere to all safety guidelines.
- 7. Changes to These Terms - We reserve the right to update these Terms and Conditions at any time. Continued use of our studio constitutes acceptance of any changes.